Bassma Organization for social development Sky Bar Event

BASSMA, organization for social development hosted the biggest fundraiser of the summer "Sparkling Summer night" at Sky Bar on July 6th 2009.

Excitement was in the air as over 400 guests arrived and found Sky Bar transformed into a glittering place full of like-minded people celebrating for a cause! The magical night, largely sponsored by GS, included delicious hors d'oeuvres and many prizes, including a five star cruise in the Baltic Sea offered by Nakhal Travel Agency.

The evening was animated by Steffy Fayçal and Blue Diamonds by Sévine performed live to the delight of everyone. Among many notable songs, Sévine surprised the audience with a rendition of the BASSMA 'Hymne du Sourire' specially arranged for the event.

All of the profits of the evening benefited BASSMA's specialized rehabilitation program. Through its tailored programs, BASSMA supports families by providing them with basic needs such as food, medication, clothes and social assistance, thereby creating a real in many lives. The programs focus on education and employment, aiming to help families achieve financial independence.
